

Summer Intensive Mandarin Program

2020/7/6~2020/8/14

Learning Chinese,
No Better Place!

Using Chinese
every day.

Morning classes
develop listening and speaking skills, and afternoon classes provide various cultural activities.

Classes will be tailored to Chinese proficiency levels, ranging from basic to advanced level.
Our class sizes are small and allow maximum teacher-student interaction.

Attractions in Kaohsiung

Welcome to Taiwan: <http://eng.taiwan.net.tw/>

The Pier-2 Art Center

Before some passionate art professionals tried to give it a second life, Pier-2 Art Center was just an ordinary wharf-side warehouse. Today's Pier-2 serves as a unique space where artists and students can present their works. On the open meadow are impressive artistic installations, shown in conjunction with the current exhibitions. People say they are always pleasantly surprised by what's going on at Pier-2 every time they visit this place.

Formosa Boulevard and "Dome of Light"

"Dome of Light" is created by Italian artist Narcissus Quagliata is the world's largest public art work made of glass. BootsNAll, a well-known travel website, ranked Formosa Boulevard ranked as the second most beautiful subway station in 2012.

Ruifeng Night Market

Food and fun galore wait at this popular night market in Kaohsiung. With over a lot of vendors, the market offers an amazing variety of fashionable items, fun amusements, and tasty snacks at a fair price. This is a popular place for Kaohsiung residents to enjoy an evening walk and bite to eat.

Dream Mall

Dream Mall, located on Zhonghua Fifth Road in Kaohsiung City, houses renowned domestic and international designer brands. It is also equipped with a bookstore and some nice restaurants. People come to the Ferris wheel to take memorial wedding photos, too.

Kaohsiung Main Public Library

An international design competition was undertaken for the construction of a green architectural structure of minimalist design.

Shikuchan

Commercial District

Shikuchan Commercial District has recently developed into the largest and most famous marketplace for imported goods in Southern Taiwan, presenting the latest fashion in sync with Paris, Milan, Hong Kong, Japan and South Korea, thereby securing the youth market, to whom it provides the most avant-garde leisure and shopping choice.

Fo Guang Shan Buddha Museum

The Fo Guang Big Buddha behind the Main Hall towers 108 meters high, making it the tallest sitting bronze Buddha statue in the world. Other attractions here include the Three Acts of Goodness Children's Gallery, Cultural Square at the Four Givings Pagoda, House of Joy and Celebration at the Five Harmonies Pagoda, and sutra transcriptions, prayer service, and Tea Chan at the Twin Pavilions.

Attractions in Kaohsiung

Qihou Lighthouse

The lighthouse serves an important role in ensuring the safe transit of merchant ships at Kaohsiung Harbor. The more than century old building is designated as a grade three historic site.

Qihou Battery

Qihou Battery is a Chinese-style fortification replete. Double-happiness characters fashioned into the brickwork, bat motifs on the corner towers, and many other traditional designs on the walls and steps further add to the Eastern spirit and beauty of the fort.

Attractions in Tainan

Tainan Street Food

Tainan is the oldest city and used to be the capital and economic center of Taiwan. Though it has since ceded its political power and cosmopolitan allure, the area has managed to preserve a lot of its food traditions.

Anping Fort

In 1624, Dutch built the first fort in Anping, Taiwan, called "Fort Zeelandia", now known as Anping Fort, where has been the administrative center of the Dutch regime, and the hub for trading. The building was originally constructed in square inner fortress and rectangle outer walls.

Anping Treehouse

It was the original warehouse for British trading company Tait & Co. The aerial roots and branches of trees wrapped around the building, combine with soil, red brick and partial concrete wall creates an unusual sight.
